UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN

JANAAGRAHA CENTRE FOR CITIZENSHIP & DEMOCRACY

AND

This MOU has its objective of the collaboration and participation of both organizations, for making civic education an important part of the education system, to provide children with a suitable opportunity to exemplify their skills & talents beyond academics, instilling behaviours as well as attributes essential to being a responsible, engaged, and Active Citizen.

SCOPE OF COLLABORATION

Bala Janaagraha is Janaagraha's Civic learning programme which aims to empower and enable every child to be an Active Citizen.

We have engaged around 4, 11,000 students across Grades 6th – 12th in 700+ schools in 29 cities since inception.

Janaagraha's Civic Learning programme Bala Janaagraha introduces to our four Civic education augmenting strands to impart the importance of being responsible citizenry through fun and activity-based content.

The four strands are:

- a. Aligned lesson plans
- b. Civic Action Plan (C.A.P)
- c. Our city, Our Challenge
- d. Campaigns

Our Strands mainly focus on instilling 21st-century skills like - Critical thinking, Leadership, Creative thinking, Communication, Logical reasoning, decision making, Persistence, Collaboration & teamwork and do focus on the NEP 2020 recommendations.

Our City, Our Challenge	Campaigns
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Our City, Our Challenge aims to engage children/youth in 'Active Citizenship' and demonstrate how through this act, they can potentially influence the quality of life. - In this challenge, they form groups, identify an issue that they care about, investigate root causes and symptoms, ideate possible solutions, and attempt to implement their ideas. - An orientation session followed by three follow up sessions are conducted as part of project activity. - All the teams would be mentored by our core team/ volunteers/School POC on their project activity. - During this design thinking process, they track the impact of their actions on their community. Students can choose issues related to Road Safety, Climate Change, Local Governance, Water Conservation, and Managing Waste, COVID-19 issues, or any other issue where they feel they can bring about a positive change. - They also meet virtually/physically their local government authorities as a part of the challenge. - The challenge portal is enabled by a custom-built skills matrix that maps skills imbibed by each participant and the challenge culminates into a Civic fest. - http://challenge.balajanaagraha.org/ portal link for reference 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Campaigns are a very important part when we care for our community. - Campaigns are often the main way that we can interact with the public and get our message out to people. They give students an opportunity to develop leadership by organizing and carrying out several community activities. - In addition to planning events that contribute to school spirit and community welfare, campaigns help students voice out their opinions and views. - They help students to share ideas, interests, and concerns with the school and wider community. - Students can mobilize and involve people in their work, educate the public and change behaviour towards certain issues. - Students can choose to do a campaign on any issue that they feel is affecting them or the community. Campaigns can be online or offline.

School Management can choose any or all strands of the programme to be conducted in the school and conducting these programme do not involve any cost.
